Order

23/04/2026

The instant Criminal Misc. Petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for quashing of the FIR No.121/2023 registered at Police Station Nai, District Udaipur for offence punishable under Sections 384, 499, 389 and 504 of IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during pendency of the present Criminal Misc. Petition, parties have resolved their dispute amicably and written application has already been submitted before the Investigating Officer to withdraw the impugned FIR. Learned counsel further submits that in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, further proceeding in this FIR are fruitless and continuation thereof would be a futile exercise and a waste of precious judicial time and resources. In these facts and circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, this petition for quashing of the impugned FIR may be accepted.

Learned State Counsel as well as counsel for the complainant does not dispute the factum of the compromise. Learned counsel appearing for complainant/respondent No.2 submits that complainant has no objection if the present misc. petition is allowed.

In view of the aforesaid and considering the submissions made on behalf of the respective parties; the material made available for perusal; considering the fact that parties have resolved their dispute amicably and also finding that the present case is wholly covered by the principle of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr. reported in 2012 Cr.L.J. (SC) 4934 and in the case of State of Haryana & Ors. Vs. Choudhary Bhajan Lal & Ors. [AIR 1992 SC 604] and as such, the aforesaid FIR is liable to be quashed in view of compromise arrived at between the parties.

In view of the above, this Criminal Misc. Petition is allowed and the FIR No.121/2023 registered at Police Station Nai, District Udaipur is quashed and set aside. Consequence to follow.

Stay application and pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
