I.A. No.01/25

1. The present application has been filed under the caption of "application under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to hear the matter on pending stay application on an early date."
2. On perusal of record and contents of the application, this Court finds that the next date given by the Registry is 25.04.2025. The Court therefore, asked Mr. Nikhil Dungawat, learned counsel for the petitioner that why should this case be given precedence and be heard at an early date, when the next date given by the Registry is 25.04.2025?
3. Mr. Nikhil Dungawat, learned counsel for the petitioner responded by saying that the application is not an application for preponement or early listing but an application for hearing the pending stay application at an earlier date. He added that since similarly situated persons have already been granted interim protection, the present application be allowed and similar interim order be granted in petitioner's case as well.

4. The petitioner's services were terminated on 28.05.2024 and a co-ordinate Bench of this Court had been pleased to issue notices of the writ petition as well as of the stay application on 25.07.2024. The respondents have been served on 02.12.2024, whereafter, the matter was listed on 28.01.2025, but was adjourned. Office has given next date as 25.04.2025.

5. The petitioner's services were terminated on 28.05.2024. A period of about 8 months has since passed. There is no pressing urgency of giving any priority to this case over all other pending matters; the application under whatever name, in essence is an application for early listing.

6. No case for grant of early listing is made out.

7. Application is thus rejected.

8. List this case on 25.04.2025, the date already fixed by the Registry.
