Order

30/05/2025

1. Heard on the interim stay application.
2. The petitioner is present-in-person and submits her arguments through her father.
3. It is the case of the petitioner that she has completed her graduation from Private University and now she wants to seek admission in PG Course. The respondents have issued a notification and one of the condition of the notification is that the candidates who have been admitted in their UG Degree Programme from 2019 onward through JET/National Level-CUET (ICRA)/State Level entrance examination (conducted by government body only) are alone eligible for Pre-PG Examination, 2025 and the candidates those who have completed their Graduation from Private University will not be allowed to participate in the Pre-PG Examination, 2025 (entrance examination).

4. The learned counsel appearing for the respondent No. 3 submits that the similar controversy is pending before the Division Bench and the Division Bench has granted time to the respondent to file reply without passing any order and, therefore, he seeks time to file the reply. It is prayed that till filing of the reply, no order can be passed.

5. At this stage, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the last date to submit the examination form for the said examination is 31st May, 2025 with a late fee.

6. Considering the approaching last date and the upcoming summer vacations, this Court is inclined to issue some interim directions. Accordingly, the respondents are directed to receive the offline application form of the petitioner without insisting upon the condition which is under challenge subject to payment of required fee. Any participation in the entrance examination is subject to the final outcome of the writ petition.

7. The learned counsel for the respondents is also at liberty to seek vacation of the interim order by filing an appropriate application, while submitting their reply.

8. List the matter on 10.06.2025, while reflecting the name of Mr. I.R. Choudhary, learned Additional Advocate General, as the counsel for the respondent No.1, in the cause list.
9. The learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to serve a copy of the writ petition along with its annexures to Mr. Choudhary, who may file reply by the next date of hearing.
10. The service of the notices upon the respondents No. 2 and 4 is dispensed with as they are not necessary parties.
