Per: Arun Monga, J

1. The appeal is directed against judgment and order dated 04.04.2025 passed by learned Family Court No.1, Sri Ganganagar, in Civil Misc. Case No. 17/2023 whereby the application of the appellant-father filed under Section 12 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 seeking interim custody of his minor son was rejected.

2. Given the nature of controversy, this Court deemed it appropriate that the parties ought to have first explored the possibility of mutual settlement by joining the mediation proceedings.

3. Pursuant thereto, mediation proceedings were initiated. The same have been successful as is borne out from the mediation report dated 08.04.2026 submitted by the learned Mediator which reads as under:

“After making best efforts for amicable settlement, Joint and Single Sessions held with the parties, both the parties agree to resolve the dispute in following terms-

The parties are living separately from last many years and now they do not wish to live together. Hence the settlement is arrived on the following terms-

A. Both the parties agreed to file application for divorce on mutual consent, before the Family Court, Sri-Ganganagar as they do not want to live together.

B. Husband Surjeet Singh agreed to pay maintenance to wife Pushpa and his minor son for Rs. 10,000/- per month to be given by 10th of every month in the account of his wife. (account number already provided) for the pending maintenance of Rs. 2,40,000/-. Surjeet has already paid Rs. 32,000/- for rest of amount Rs. 2,08,000/- Surjeet is ready to pay rest amount Rs. 2,08,000/- in 12 installment every month.

C. If the maintenance amount is not paid or in case of default in payment, the amount shall be deducted from the salary of husband Surjeet Singh and in this regard, the employer shall pay the amount from the account/salary of Surjeet Singh, on application, if filed, by wife of the concerned employee.

D. That the husband Surjeet Singh assures to take care and bear the expenses of Education/Uniform/Fees etc. of his minor son who is presently residing with his mother.

E. Both the parties jointly submit to withdraw the respective cases filed against each other in the concerned Courts by filing application of withdrawal.

F. The custody of minor son is with wife Pushpa that husband is allowed to have visitation rights and can meet his son on first and third Sunday of every month. In same manner, wife is also free to met her daughter, if she wishes so.

Hence, the mediation proceedings are rendered successful in above terms.”

4. Apropos, both the learned counsels for the parties, on a Court query, would jointly submit that parties are agreeable to aforesaid arrangement arrived in course of the mediation proceedings. The mutual settlement arrived between the parties is accordingly made as part and parcel order of this Court. The parties are directed to abide by the terms contained therein

5. The appeal is disposed of accordingly.

6. All pending applications stand disposed of.
