Order

S.B. Criminal Writ Petition No. 610/2026:-

1. By way of filing the instant writ petition, the petitioner has made a challenge to the act of the respondent authority in not sending the will in question to FSL. That the respondent authorities may be directed to comply the order dated 14.07.2025 passed by learned Magistrate expeditiously by sending the alleged will dated 10.04.2007 for its examination by the FSL. Vide order dated 14.07.2025 (Annx.3) when the negative final report came to be submitted before learned Magistrate, he shown his disagreement and remanded back the case dairy to the SHO concerned for doing further investigation in the matter and for recovery of the will dated 10.04.2007 and whereafter to send the same for examination by handwriting expert to the FSL. It is apprised to this Court that the accused respondents have moved a S.B. Criminal Revision Petition No.07/2025 titled as Arpanjot Singh v. State of Rajasthan.

2. Since the examination of legality and correctness of order dated 14.07.2025 passed by learned ACJM is already under adjudication before Additional Sessions Court, therefore, it would not be appropriate for this Court to take the matter and decide it since, the issue is already pending before learned Additional District Judge.

3. In this view of the matter, the instant writ petition is disposed of while directing learned Addl. Session Judge, Gharsana to decide the revision petition as aforesaid within a period of 30 days of course after hearing both the parties.

4. Learned counsel for the parties assure this Court that they would not take unnecessary adjournment in the matter and will provide their assistance for smooth hearing and disposal of the revision petition expeditiously.

S.B. Criminal Miscellaneous (Petition) No. 1331/2025

1. The instant matter pertains to FIR No.415/2019 of police station Nayi Mandi Thana, Gharsana. The same FIR has been the subject matter of S.B. Criminal Writ Petition No. 610/2026 which has been decided by this Court. Since the matter has been once investigated and a negative final report has been submitted and whereafter learned Magistrate has passed the order dated 14.07.2025 and now the order above is a subject matter of revision petition pending before learned Addl. District and Session Judge, Gharsana, therefore no further order is required to be passed in this matter.

2. Accordingly, the instant misc. petition is disposed of.

3. The petitioners are at liberty to approach this Court, if any order adversarial to their interest is passed by learned Addl. and Session Judge.

4. Pending applications, if any, are also disposed of.

S.B. Criminal Miscellaneous (Petition) No. 883/2024:-

1. A very bizarre situation has been observed by this Court upon perusal of impugned FIR No.407/2022 of Nayi Mandi Thana, Gharsana relating to offence under Section 457, 380, 427 & 341 of IPC. An FIR came to be lodged on 12.11.2022 for an incident allegedly took place on 02.05.2022. A bare perusal of the content of FIR making a revelation that after committing the offence of theft of CCTV Cameras and committed other offence the camera was taken by the police and at the time of filing of the FIR, the subject matter of theft was lying in police station itself. The circumstances are very perplexing as to how the stolen property was already in possession of the police before filing of the FIR on 12.11.2022 otherwise also noticing that a very trivial issue pertaining to investigation in a case exclusively triable by Court of Magistrate is pending before police station since last four years and the same is displaying nothing sort of total dereliction of duties by the concerned police officers, the Superintendent of Police shall remain present before this Court to convince why suitable actions may not be directed to be passed against them for inaction on their part in the matter above.

2. List the matter on 05.05.2026.

S.B. Criminal Miscellaneous (Petition) No. 4706/2022:-

1. The concerned Superintendent of Police shall remain physically present before this Court to convince as to why after elapsing of around 7 years no conclusion of investigation can be drawn in the matter.

2. List the matter on 05.05.2026.
