1. Confronted with our observations as to what is the material on record to show as to whether the University from which the appellants claim to have obtained their education is duly recognized by the University Grants Commission (U.G.C.) and; also whether the degrees/certificates awarded to the appellants are through regular education or through correspondence mode; learned counsel for the appellants seeks short accommodation.
2. Post these matters on 07.05.2026.
