Order

29/11/2023

1. It is submitted by learned counsel for the appellants that though several issues have been raised by the appellants before the learned Single Judge, which have been noticed while enumerating the arguments of the parties, the same have not been dealt with. Submissions have been made that judgment in the case of Prof. Yashpal, which has been referred to for dismissed the writ petitions, apparently has no application to the present case.

2. In view of the submissions made, Admit. Issue notice.
3. As respondents are duly represented by learned AAG, no need to issue notice.
4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the appellants that during the pendency of the writ petition, interim orders were passed for keeping posts vacant and that the recruitment is still on and the said posts have not been filled up so far.
5. In view of submissions made, in case the posts for which the interim orders were passed during the pendency of the writ petition before the learned Single Judge, have not been filled up so far, posts to the extent of the number of the appellants, involved in the present appeals, shall be kept vacant.
6. List the appeals for hearing on 16.01.2024.
