Order

17/11/2023

Upon consideration of the legal submission that the acquittal of the respondent No.1 in the trial was not on the premise that the allegations were false rather a benefit of doubt was given by observing that the prosecution got failed in proving the case against him and whereafter, a cognizance has been taken by the Magistrate and the revisional court has affirmed the order taking cognizance, I deem it appropriate to interfere in the matter.

None present for the respondent No.1. He would be required to file reply.

List the matter on 24.01.2024.

In the meanwhile, effect and operation of the order dated 25.09.2019 passed by the learned Civil Judge and Judicial
