Order

07/05/2026

The present bail application has been preferred by the petitioner under Section 482 of BNSS (Old Section 438 Cr.P.C.) in connection with FIR No.117/2025 registered at Police Station Purani Abadi, District Sri Ganganagar for the offences punishable under Section 305-A of BNS.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case. The FIR has been lodged with an oblique motive to harass the petitioner. It is further submitted that the complainant desired to fulfill some illegal demands from the present petitioner, when she denied, the present FIR has been lodged against her. The petitioner is 26 years unmarried girl. It is therefore, prayed that the petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail.

4. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. Having considered the rival submissions, the facts and circumstances of the case, and perusal of the material on record, this Court notes that the investigating agency has, prima facie, found the involvement of the petitioner in the commission of an offence under Section 305(A) BNS. It is also evident that recovery of gold ornaments and other articles is yet to be effected from the petitioner. In view of the above, and without expressing any opinion on the merits or demerits of the case, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 482 of BNSS (Old Section 438 Cr.P.C.) is dismissed.
