Order

23/06/2026

This application for bail under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) has been filed by the petitioner who has been arrested in connection with F.I.R. No.133/2023 registered at Police Station Mavali, District Udaipur for offences under Section 379 of IPC, 1860.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the present case solely on account of his involvement in certain pending cases. He further submits that the allegation levelled against the petitioner is that he stole two rims of cycle. It is further submitted that, several cases are pending against the petitioner and although he has been convicted in some cases, he has also been acquitted in several other cases.

It is further contended that the FIR itself states that the allegations are frivolous, and also that the offences alleged against the petitioner are triable by Court of Magistrate and the petitioner is in judicial custody since 11.05.2026. It is further stated that investigation qua the petitioner is complete and the trial of the case will take sufficiently long time, therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted to the accused-petitioner.

Per contra, learned Additional Advocate General has opposed the bail application.

Heard learned counsel for the parties perused the material available on record.

This Court has considered the rival submissions and perused the material available on record, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the fact that the offences are triable by Court of Magistrate, the investigation has been completed, no recovery is required to be made from the petitioner, continued incarceration of the petitioner is not warranted. The accused-petitioner is in judicial custody since 11.05.2026 and conclusion of the trial of the case is likely to take time. Further, the prosecution has not shown any apprehension of the petitioner absconding or tampering with the evidence if released on bail. Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to grant bail to the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS.

Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner Naru @ Nariya S/o Paru @ Pariya arrested in connection with FIR No.133/2023 registered at Police Station Mavali, District Udaipur, shall be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs.50,000/- and two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each, to the satisfaction of learned trial court, for his appearance before that court on each & every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till completion of the trial.
