Order

17/07/2026

1. The applicant has filed the present bail application under Section 483 of BNSS being aggrieved against the order dated 08.06.2026 passed by the learned Special Judge, NDPS Act Cases, Sujangarh District Churu, Rajasthan in Criminal Miscellaneous Case No.94/2026, whereby the bail application filed by the accused-applicant under Section 483 of B.N.S.S. was rejected. The accused-applicant is behind the bars, pursuant to the F.I.R. No.174/2026 registered at Police Station Sujangarh, District Churu, Rajasthan for the offence punishable under Sections 8/21 of the NDPS Act.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the contraband, i.e. 05.09 grams heroin, has been recovered from co-accused - Yash who has already been enlarged on bail by Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 25.06.2026 in S.B. Criminal Miscellaneous Bail Application No.8301/2026 "Yash vs. State of Rajasthan". He further submits that the applicant is not having any criminal antecedents pertaining to the Act of 1985 and the contraband recovered is below the threshold limit of commercial quantity. He, therefore, implores this Court to allow the present Criminal Miscellaneous Bail Application.

3. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor opposes the application. However, he is not in a position to dispute the fact that recovered contraband is below the threshold limit of the commercial quantity and the person from whom recovery was effected has already been enlarged on bail by Coordinate Bench of this Court.

4. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

5. Having considered the arguments advanced by both the sides and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, including the facts that the recovered contraband is below the threshold limit of the commercial quantity, the person from whom recovery was effected has already been enlarged on bail and the applicant is not having any criminal antecedents pertaining to the Act of 1985, without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, this Court is inclined to enlarge the applicant on bail.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-applicant Rajesh S/o Banshi Lal arrested in connection with F.I.R.

No.174/2026 registered at Police Station Sujangarh, District Churu, Rajasthan shall be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs.50,000/- and two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each, to the satisfaction of learned trial Court, for his appearance before that Court on each & every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till completion of the trial.

7. It is further, made clear that the findings recorded/observations made hereinabove are for limited purposes of adjudication of bail application and the same shall not prejudice the trial of the case in any manner.
