Order

25/06/2026

The instant second bail application under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) has been filed by the petitioner who has been arrested in connection with F.I.R. No.21/2026 registered at Police Station Falna, District Pali, for offences under Sections 309(6) and 140(3) of BNS.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the present case all the offences pressed against the petitioner are triable by court of Magistrate except Section 111 and he argues that ingredients of section 111 are not made out and liberty was granted to file second bail application after filing of the challan.. He further submits that after investigation charge-sheet has already been filed and investigation from petitioner is complete and nothing has to be recovered now from the petitioner and petitioner is behind the bars since 22.02.2026 and antecedent of the petitioner is clear and the trial of the case will take sufficiently long time, therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted to the accused-petitioner.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

This Court has considered the rival submissions and perused the material available on record. In the present case all the offences pressed against the petitioner are triable by court of Magistrate except Section 111, it is stated that the ingredients of section 111 are not made out and liberty was granted to file second bail application after filing of the challan. After investigation charge-sheet has already been filed and investigation from petitioner is complete and nothing has to be recovered from the petitioner and petitioner is behind the bars since 22.02.2026 and antecedent of the petitioner is clear

Hence, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case; the alleged offences are triable by a Magistrate; and that conclusion of the trial of the case is likely to take time and the prosecution has not shown any apprehension of the petitioner fleeing away from justice, in case he is enlarged on bail; but, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to grant bail to the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS.

Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner Mukesh Kumar S/o Bhagwanaram arrested in connection with FIR No.21/2026 registered at Police Station Falna, District Pali, shall be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs.50,000/- and two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each, to the satisfaction of learned trial court, for his appearance before that court on each & every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till completion of the trial.
