Order

12/07/2022

Child activist Shri Beniwal apprised the Court that there have been two instances wherein the Chairperson, CWC at Bara and Pali being found indulged in accepting illegal gratification. Shri Gaur shall instruct the authorities concerned for immediate removal of the persons concerned who were found indulged in accepting illegal gratification while discharging duties on the sensitive posts of Chairperson/ members of the C.W.C. and for making alternative arrangements, so that these bodies can function effectively till fresh appointments are made. This Court is also apprised that the requisite funds for completion of the construction of Skill Development Centre at Jodhpur have not been released despite the direction given on 27.05.2022. Shri Gaur also submitted that as many as 210 posts are lying vacant in the Department of Child rights and thus sufficient human resources are not being provided in the Child Care Institutions across the State of Rajasthan.

In view of the facts noted hereinabove, it is directed that the Secretary, Department of Child Rights, Secretary, Social Welfare Department and the concerned official from the Finance Department shall join the proceedings of this suo-moto writ petition on the next date of hearing through V.C. Shri Pankaj Sharma, AAG shall instruct the officers concerned from the Medical & Health Department to formulate SOPs so that visits by the Medical Officers to the Child Care Institutions becomes a part of the official protocol.
