Order

06/12/2022

Necessary steps required to be taken as per the Court's directions for upgradation of the child care institution have more or less been completed. Shri Anil Kumar Gaur, learned AAG, has filed an exhaustive progress report detailing therein various steps taken by the State Government officials consequent to the directions given in this suo moto writ petition.

Shri Rakesh Choudhry, Senior Consultant, Juvenile Justice Committee, Rajasthan High Court, Jodhpur, pointed out that the Skill Development Center at Jodhpur is functioning properly and courses are being imparted to the children in need of care and protection. This court is also apprised by Shri Choudhary that the hostel section of the Skill Development Center is under construction and the work is likely to be completed within next two months. Shri Choudhary and Shri B.L. Saraswat, Assistant Director, DCR, Jodhpur, submits that once construction is completed, children from all over the State of Rajasthan can be shifted to the Skill Development Center for being provided vocational trainings/courses.

We are of the view that the purpose for which this suo moto writ petition was registered has been fructified. Hence, the suo moto writ petition alongwith the connected matters shall be listed on 31.03.2023 for receiving supervisory progress report.
