Order

10/10/2023

Learned Amicus Curiae Mr. Anirudh Purohit has submitted that in the compliance report submitted by the State Government, it is nowhere mentioned that the children, lodged in Child Homes run by the NGOs, have been shifted to the Child Homes either run by the State Government or NGOs under the order of the Child Welfare Committees concerned. It is also submitted that the children cannot be shifted to any Children Home either run by the State Government or NGOs without there being any order of the Committee concerned.

Mr. Salman Agah Assistant to AAG Mr. A.K. Gaur appearing on behalf of respondents prays for some time to verify whether the children shifted from Child Homes run by the private NGOs to other Child Homes run by the State Government or NGOs, have been shifted under the orders of the Committee or not.

Mr. Salman Agah also prays for some time to apprise this Court that what steps have been taken by the State Government to provide infrastructure to the Skill Development Centre at Jodhpur because the construction of two rooms, purported to be used as Hostel, has already been completed.

Mr. Agah may also inform this Court about the possibility of entering into MOU with any NGO or Society to run the Skill Development Centre at Jodhpur.

List on 04.11.2023.
