Order

27/09/2024

Taking cognizance of a newspaper report published in 'Dainik Bhaskar' on 29th May 2024, certain directions were issued by this Court 12th August 2024.

2. Mr. Rajendra Prasad Gupta, the learned Advocate General assisted by Mr. Anirudh Singh appears for the respondent-State of Rajasthan.

3. The learned Advocate General has apprised this Court that necessary datas are being collected and the respondents propose to file a composite response to the issues flagged by this Court in this Suo Moto (PIL); as at least two departments, namely, the Department of Home and the Department of Social Justice are involved in such exercise. The learned Advocate General has also indicated that certain difficulties are being faced in collecting the datas for the reason that in the Nomadic Tribes the people generally are reluctant to get themselves identified in UID, still, efforts are being taken to collect details of children.

4. We find that in the application seeking extension of time certain useful details have been provided for issuing a comprehensive direction. This Court has requested the learned Advocate General to provide more details.

5. Mr. Anirudh Purohit, learned Amicus Curiae shall also prepare suggestions.

6. On the request made by Mr. Anirudh Singh, the learned assisting counsel to the learned Advocate General, post the matter on 24th October 2024.
