Order

25/06/2026

This application for bail under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) has been filed by the petitioner, who has been arrested in connection with FIR No. 202/2026 registered at Police Station Sangariya, District Hanumangarh, for offences punishable under Sections 8/15 and 25 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the material available on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the alleged recovery of 4.090 kg of poppy husk from the petitioner is below the commercial quantity prescribed under the NDPS Act. It is further submitted that no other case under the NDPS Act is pending against the petitioner and only one criminal case under the IPC is stated to be pending against him. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 25.04.2026, the investigation stands completed, and the trial of the case is likely to take considerable time to conclude. Therefore, it is prayed that the benefit of bail be granted to the accused-petitioner.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

This Court has considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record. The alleged recovery of 4.090 kg of poppy husk from the petitioner is below the commercial quantity prescribed under the NDPS Act. It is not disputed that no other case under the NDPS Act is pending against the petitioner and only one criminal case under the IPC is stated to be pending against him. The petitioner has remained in judicial custody since 25.04.2026. The investigation in the matter stands completed.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the nature of the allegations, the fact that the alleged recovery is below commercial quantity, the completion of investigation, the period of custody already undergone by the petitioner, and the likelihood of the trial taking considerable time, this Court is of the view that the petitioner has made out a case for grant of bail. Nothing has been brought on record to indicate that, if enlarged on bail, the petitioner would abscond or misuse the liberty granted to him. Accordingly, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to enlarge the petitioner on bail under Section 483 of the BNSS.

Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 of the BNSS is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner, Jasvinder Singh @ Gillu S/o Mithu Singh, arrested in connection with FIR No. 202/2026 registered at Police Station Sangariya, District Hanumangarh, shall be released on bail, if not required in any other case, upon furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh Only) along with two sound and solvent sureties in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) each, to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court, for his appearance before the said Court on each and every date of hearing and as and when called upon to do so, till conclusion of the trial.
