Order

25/06/2026

This application for bail under Section 483 of BNSS has been filed by the petitioner, who has been arrested in connection with FIR No. 74/2026 registered at Police Station Nithauva, District Dungarpur, for offences under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 119(2) & 189(2) of BNS.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the material available on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that a fight occurred between the parties and the only injury specified is that a tooth has been broken. It is further stated that there are no injuries dangerous to life and, further, except for Section 119 of the BNS, the other offences are triable by a Court of Magistrate. It is also stated that the petitioner is a young boy of 19 years of age and all pending antecedents are clear in respect of the petitioner.

Learned counsel submits that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 12.06.2026 and that the trial of the case will take a sufficiently long time; therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted to the accused-petitioner.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

This Court has considered the arguments raised by learned counsel for the parties. Further, having considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner, it appears that a fight occurred between the parties and the only injury specified is that a tooth has been broken. There are no injuries alleged to be dangerous to life and, except for Section 119 of the BNS, the other offences are triable by a Court of Magistrate. The petitioner is stated to be in judicial custody since 12.06.2026 and the trial is likely to take a long time. Therefore, this Court finds it appropriate to grant the benefit of bail to the accused-petitioner.

Hence, keeping in view the fact that the conclusion of the trial of the case is likely to take time and the prosecution has not shown any apprehension of the petitioner fleeing from justice in case he is enlarged on bail, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to grant bail to the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS.

Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 of BNSS is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner, Shri Hitesh Kumar S/o Jamala, arrested in connection with FIR No.

74/2026, shall be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- and two sureties of Rs. 25,000/- each, to the satisfaction of the learned trial court, for his appearance before that court on each and every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till completion of the trial.
