HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR JAIN

Order

17/07/2026

1. This instant application under Section 483 BNSS, 2023 is filed by the petitioner-applicant Neeraj S/o Hawa Singh seeking bail in respect of a criminal case registered as FIR No.205/2026 dated 04.06.2026 registered at P.S. Rajgarh (Churu), District - Churu, for the offence under Sections 331(4) & 305(a) of BNS, 2023.
2. Despite taking up matter in second round, no one has present on behalf of the applicant.
3. On perusal of bail rejection order dated 16.06.2026 passed by learned Addl. Sessions Judge No.2, Rajgarh, District Churu clearly indicate that there are thirty-four criminal cases registered against the applicant and it clearly indicate that the applicant is regularly involved in criminal activities of similar nature.

4. FIR No. 205/2026 was registered by complainant Omprakash regarding the breaking of a lock during the night and the commission of theft between the nights of 3rd and 4th June, 2026, by an unknown person. After the arrest of the applicant, some recoveries were effected. The present applicant is also involved in similar nature of case, therefore, considering his criminal antecedents, this is not a fit case for the grant of bail to the applicant.
5. The material on record indicates that there were 34 criminal cases against the applicant. The material clearly indicates that a large number of criminal cases have been registered against this applicant and that he has been regularly involved in criminal activities since 2013. In the case of Rajni versus State of Punjab, reported in 2026 SCC OnLine SC 1050, while considering criminal antecedents, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that criminal antecedents have a direct bearing on the likelihood of an accused abiding by bail conditions, refraining from repeating offences and intimidating witnesses. In the case of Neeru Yadav versus State of U.P., reported in (2015) SC 3703, while considering the principle of parity, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that the criminal antecedents of an individual cannot be ignored, as they are an important factor for the grant of bail.

6. Having considered the entire material, in particular, the criminal antecedents of the petitioner, this is not a fit case to enlarge the applicant-accused on bail.
7. In view of discussion made here-in-above the bail application preferred by the petitioner Neeraj S/o Hawa Singh under Section 483 of BNSS is hereby dismissed.
8. The Registry is directed to send a copy of this order to the Trial Court through E-mail.
