Order

28/08/2025

1. It is stated at the Bar that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and it is borne out from the compromise deed that the complainant is not inclined to proceed further in the matter.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter has already been compromised between the parties. In view thereof, respondent No.2-complainant is not inclined to press charges against the petitioner and proceed further in the matter. Learned counsel has placed reliance on a decision of Supreme Court in the case of Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr. [(2012) 10 SCC 303]. He urges that the impugned order and all consequential proceedings may be quashed on the basis of compromise.

3. Learned counsel for the respondents No.2 -complainant and learned Public Prosecutor concur with the fact of compromise and submit that in view of the compromise, they have no objection if the impugned order in question is quashed.

4. In the premise, applying the ratio in decision of Gian Singh (Supra), I deem it just and proper to invoke inherent powers of this Court under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 (Section 482 Cr.P.C) to avoid undue hardship to the parties.

5. Accordingly, the present miscellaneous petition is allowed, and the criminal proceedings of Criminal Case No.142/2023 pending before the Court of Judicial Magistrate No.03, District Bikaner, against the petitioner, are hereby quashed.

6. Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
