Order

15/03/2024

We find that though PF and notice have been submitted for service of notice on respondent No.1 on his present address, the office has not issued the notice and has listed the case under the heading 'orders' with a note that the application has not been filed for substitution of respondent No.1.

There is no order passed by this Court directing substitution of respondent No.1, therefore, the objection raised in the note by the Registry is without any basis. The Registry is directed to issue notice forthwith without keeping any objection. Notice is made returnable within three weeks.

List the matter immediately after three weeks.

In the meantime, Dr. Khandelwal, learned AAG shall seek instructions from the office of District Collector, Bhilwara with regard to the compliance of the order.
