1. Counsel for the petitioner submits that in the advertisement dated 01.11.2022 issued for the purpose of appointment on the post of Community Health Officer (Contractual) Recruitment-2022, one of the essential qualification laid down was that the candidates who did not had certificate in Community Health (CCH)/B.Sc. in Community Health/B.Sc. Nursing with integrated Curriculum or Post Basic B.Sc. Nursing with integrated Curriculum, shall have to pass 6 months bridge course successfully. He further submits that the respondents have also accorded two opportunities to the candidates who could not pass in their first attempt. He also submits that the petitioner successfully cleared the bridge course in his first attempt itself, however, on account of error on the part of authority who issued the result/mark-sheet dated 12.03.2026 (Annex.9), petitioner was shown as absent against the CHO-0003-Public Health and Primary Health Care Skills in the [Practical (External)] examination and in the result, petitioner was declared as 'Fail'. He submits that the said mistake was rectified by the authority wherein the petitioner was issued mark-sheet while showing his marks as 63 for the said subject and in the result, the petitioner was declared as 'Pass'. He further submits that on account of the said clerical mistake, the respondents have not accorded appointment to the petitioner whereas, all other candidates have been granted appointment. He submits that the petitioner is in possession of all other requisite educational qualification prescribed in the advertisement.

2. The matter requires consideration.
3. Issue notice of the writ petition along with stay application to the respondents, returnable within a period of four weeks.
4. In the meanwhile and until next date, if the posts are still lying vacant, respondents are directed to keep one post of Community Health Officer (Contractual) vacant for the petitioner in the category in which he has applied.
