Order

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, submits that the controversy raised in the instant writ application is no more res-integra in view of the adjudication made by a Coordinate Bench of this Court in S.B. Civil Writ Petition Number 2515/2002: Sita Ram Saini v. State of Rajasthan & Ors., decided on 1st December, 2008, so also adjudication in the case of Suman Bai & Anr. v. State of Rajasthan & Ors.: 2009(1) WLC (Raj.) 381.

It is further contended that for the present; the petitioner would be satisfied, if the State-respondents are directed to consider and decide the representation of the petitioner, within a time frame, which he is ready and willing to address within two weeks hereinafter.

In view of the limited prayer addressed; the instant writ proceedings are closed with a direction to the petitioner to address a comprehensive representation ventilating the grievances raised in the writ application.

In case, a representation is so addressed within the aforesaid period, the State-respondents are directed to consider and decide the same by a reasoned and speaking order as expeditiously as possible in accordance with law. However, in no case later than twelve weeks from the date of receipt of the representation along with a certified copy of this order.//With the observations and directions, as indicated above, the writ application stands disposed off.
