Order

22/07/2026

1. At the outset, learned counsel for the parties submits that the controversy involved in this case has already been decided by a Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 11.12.2025, passed in the case of Rahulsingh Babuji Chouhan & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Ors. (S.B. Civil Writ Petition

No.9531/2025), along with connected matters, whereby the writ petitions were allowed and the respondents were directed to register the names of the petitioners in the register so also to issue necessary license/certificate of their registration by the respective State councils, if they are otherwise eligible.

2. Mr. Sunil Joshi, learned counsel for the respondent No.2 - National Commission for Homeopathy submitted that the National Commission for Homeopathy has preferred an appeal i.e. D.B. Special Appeal Writ No.69/2026 : National Commission for Homeopathy Vs. Mangilal Nirban Homeopathic Medical College & Ors. before the Division Bench of this Court, which was disposed of vide order dated 21.05.2026, passed by the Division Bench of this Court with certain directions.

3. The Division Bench of this Court while disposing the aforesaid appeal, passed the following directions:-

“3. In view of the aforesaid consensus, the present appeal is disposed of with a direction that National Commission for Homeopathy, prior to registration, shall conduct an exercise of examining the admissions of 2018 batch of homeopathy students and it shall be open to the NCH to preclude them from registration where the admissions are found illegal or contrary to law. However, it is made clear that if at all such registration is denied, the same shall not be on the count that has already been dealt with in favour of the students by the Hon’ble Patna High Court.

4. The aforesaid procedure for consideration of registration shall be completed within a period of three months. It is further made clear that the students shall be required to furnish all the information and documents sought by the NCH and in case the NCH proposes to draw any adverse conclusion against any students, an opportunity of hearing shall be afforded to the concerned students. It shall be open for the NCH to take action strictly in accordance with law.”

5. In this view of the matter, the present writ petition is also disposed of in terms of the order passed in Rahulsingh Babuji Chouhan (supra) as well as directions passed by the Division Bench of this Court in National Commission for Homeopathy (supra) with a direction that National Commission for Homeopathy, prior to registration, shall conduct an exercise of examining the admissions of 2018 batch of homeopathy students and it shall be open to the National Commission for Homeopathy to preclude them from registration where the admissions are found illegal or contrary to law. However, it is made clear that if at all such registration is denied, the same shall not be on the count that has already been dealt with in favour of the students by the Hon'ble Patna High Court, as already observed by the Division Bench. The respondents are directed to verify the documents of the students on or before 31.08.2026 and thereafter process of registration will be commenced.

6. Stay application and pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
