For Petitioner(s) : Mr. Kailash Choudhary

HON'BLE DR. JUSTICE NUPUR BHATI

Order

14/07/2026

1. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner conceived in the month of March, 2026 and the respondents are under an obligation to give petitioner maximum six months' extension for appearing in Physical Efficiency Test ('PET') after consideration of marks obtained by her in the written examination.
2. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was pregnant when the PET was carried out in the month of December, 2025, however, as the petitioner had submitted an application for extension, the respondents, accordingly, considered her application and kept one seat vacant for her. He also submits that on account of unfortunate circumstances, petitioner suffered miscarriage in the month of January, 2026, however, she conceived again in the month of March, 2026. He submits that the respondents had scheduled her PET in the month of June, 2026 and the petitioner was asked about the status of her pregnancy upon which, she again requested for extension of time on account of having pregnancy of 13 weeks; however, the respondents, vide the Communication dated 12.06.2026 (Annex.9), rejected her application stating that on account of miscarriage and the petitioner conceiving again, there is no provision for keeping the post vacant.

3. The matter requires consideration.
4. Issue notice of the writ petition along with stay application to the respondents, returnable within a period of four weeks.
5. In the meanwhile and until next date, respondents are directed to keep one post in the Constable Recruitment, 2025, vacant, in the category in which petitioner has applied.
