Order

13/07/2026

1. The instant application has been filed by the petitioner through her son seeking further extension of emergent parole granted by this Court vide order dated 05.08.2025, passed in S.B. Criminal Writ Petition No.2056/2025, which was extended vide orders dated 22.08.2025, 20.09.2025, 30.10.2025, 10.12.2025, 12.02.2026, 13.04.2026 & 27.05.2026 on the ground of her treatment as she is suffering from cancer and her chemotherapy is going on continuously.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is suffering from Cancer of ovary and continuous chemotherapy is going on. Earlier, the petitioner was granted interim parole and the same has been extended 7 times on the same ground. It is submitted that the petitioner is undergoing continuous treatment at AIIMS, Jodhpur, where her next chemotherapy, MRI and ECHO test are scheduled in this month. Her condition is serious and her chemotherapy is required to be done every month. He further submitted that the petitioner also filed an application for premature release, which is pending consideration. He, therefore, prayed that the period of interim parole granted to the petitioner may be extended for a further period of 90 days. The petitioner has also placed on record medical documents in support of his above contention.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the prayer but, he does not refute the fact that the petitioner is suffering from cancer and her condition is serious and her chemotherapy is going on continuously which is required to be done every month.

5. After considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and upon careful perusal of the material available on record, more particularly the fact that the petitioner is suffering from life threatening disease – Cancer of ovary and is undergoing chemo therapies, this Court deems it appropriate to extend the period of emergent parole of the petitioner for a further period of 60 days.

6. In this background and for humanitarian grounds and there being no legal impediment to extend the period of emergent parole, the instant application is allowed and the period of emergent parole already granted by this Court, vide order ibid, is hereby further extended for 60 days. The petitioner Vidhya Devi @ Bidami, shall be released on emergent parole for a further period of 60 days' on the same conditions/directions and the bail and bonds furnished by him in terms of the order dated 05.08.2025 passed in S.B. Criminal Writ Petition No.2056/2025.

7. Learned Public Prosecutor is directed to procure the status/factual report with regard to the surrender of the petitioner before the Jail Authorities by the next date of hearing.

8. List the matter on 15.09.2026.
