Order

28/07/2026

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner on the application seeking conversion of the present Civil Revision Petition into a Civil Writ Petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India.
2. Perused the material available on record.
3. This Court finds that the impugned order has been passed on an application under Order VI Rule 17 CPC. Prima facie, such an interlocutory order is not amenable to the revisional jurisdiction of this Court under Section 115 CPC. The appropriate remedy against such an order would be by invoking the supervisory jurisdiction of this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

3.1 The present revision petition appears to have been instituted under a bona fide misconception regarding the appropriate remedy. Since the prayer for conversion is procedural in nature and no prejudice is likely to be caused to the respondent, this Court deems it just and proper to permit conversion of the present revision petition into a writ petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India.

4. Accordingly, the application is allowed. The petitioner is permitted to convert the present Civil Revision Petition into a Civil Writ Petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India. The petitioner shall carry out all consequential amendments in the cause title, pleadings and prayer clause and deposit the requisite court fee, if payable.

5. Upon compliance, the Registry shall register the matter as a Civil Writ Petition and list the same before the appropriate Bench.
