Order

10/02/2026

1. The matter arises from an application seeking impleadment in a writ petition. The writ petition was filed on behalf of the accused, Sandeep Gupta, who was facing trial in about twenty-one criminal cases at different places. He had sought temporary release on the ground of his wife's ailment and emergent circumstances. On humanitarian grounds, this Court had granted him temporary bail for a limited period, pursuant to which he subsequently surrendered.
2. The writ petition has since been finally disposed of. In that view of the matter, seeking impleadment in a disposed-of writ petition would serve no purpose. The application is devoid of merit and deserves to be rejected.

3. Accordingly, the present criminal application stands disposed of.
4. Pending applications, if any, shall stand disposed of.
