Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner as well as the complainant were partners and the alleged cheques were given against the sale deed of the land in which the petitioner had share and purchase was made on the name of the complainant as land of partnership. He further submitted that in such circumstances, the partnership deed and bank returns are the relevant documents to show that the alleged cheques were given as security in lieu of the sale deed. He further submits that the learned trial Court has erred in rejecting the application under Section 91 filed at the time of cross-examination that it was not relevant.

Prima facie, documents of the petitioner seems to be relevant.

In view of the same, this Court is inclined to interfere in the matter.

Issue notice, returnable within four weeks.

Meanwhile, till the next date of hearing, further proceedings in criminal case no.922/2023 pending before learned Special Judicial Magistrate (NI Act cases) No.8, Udaipur shall remain stayed.
