

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN AT JODHPUR

S.B. Civil Writ Petition No. 15227/2026

CNR: RJHC010692322026

URN: CW / 27536U / 2026

Taravantti D/o Gopalram, Aged About 36 Years, Resident Of Dabli Kala, Teshil Tibbi, District Hanumangarh, Presently Posted As Revenue Inspector ,hanumangarh

----Petitioner

Versus

1. State Of Rajasthan, Through The Principalsecretary, Department Of Revenue, Government Of Rajasthan, Secretariat, Jaipur.
2. The Registrar, Revenue Board Rajasthan Ajmer.

----Respondents

For Petitioner(s)	:	Mr. S.K. Verma
For Respondent(s)	:	Mr. S.R. Paliwal, GC.

HON'BLE DR. JUSTICE NUPUR BHATI

Order

16/07/2026

1. The present writ petition has been filed by the petitioner with the following prayer:-

"i. By an appropriate writ, order or direction, quash and set aside the impugned transfer order dated 10.07.2026 (Annex.4), insofar as it relates to the petitioner, whereby the petitioner has been transferred from the post of Revenue Inspector, RP-I, Tehsil Rawatsar, District Hanumangarh to Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar;.

ii. Issue an appropriate writ, order or direction directing the respondents to permit the petitioner to continue on the post of Revenue Inspector, RP-I, Tehsil Rawatsar, District Hanumangarh."

2. Brief facts of the case are that the present writ petition is filed by a Revenue Inspector (RP-I) posted at Tehsil Rawatsar, District Hanumangarh, challenging the legality and validity of a transfer order dated 10.07.2026 which transfers her to Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar. The petitioner, originally recruited as a Patwari and posted in Bhilwara, obtained an inter-district transfer in 2016 to Hanumangarh on her written request and has served there continuously, including intra-district postings in 2020 and 2022. She was promoted to Revenue Inspector on 14.04.2025 and, by order dated 16.05.2025, posted at Rawatsar—her hometown and her expressly desired station. The petitioner states she never requested or consented to transfer to Jhalawar and contends the impugned order is self-contradictory, arbitrary, issued without application of mind and by an authority lacking competence under the applicable service rules; there is no shown administrative exigency or public interest for the move. She further alleges exceptional personal hardship as primary caregiver to an ailing mother requiring continuous treatment and as mother of an eight-year-old son whose schooling in Rawatsar would be disrupted mid-session. As there is no equally efficacious alternative remedy, she invokes the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226, seeking quashing of the transfer order and consequential reliefs.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that, vide transfer order dated 10.07.2026 (Annex.4), the petitioner was transferred from RP-I Ravatsar, District Hanumangarh to Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar. He further submits that the impugned transfer order does not specify the Patwar Mandal to which the petitioner has been posted and merely mentions "Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar", thereby rendering order vague and incomplete.

4. Learned counsel further submits that the impugned transfer order is contrary to Rule 9 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957, which governs the transfer of Patwaris, and is therefore liable to be set aside. He further placed reliance upon the order dated 18.03.202021 passed by a co-ordinate bench of this Court in the case of Rajpal Singh Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors. (SBCWP No. 544/2021).

5. Learned GC, places reliance upon the order dated 28.02.2024 passed in case of Vinod Kumar v. State of Rajasthan & Ors. : SBCWP No.2951/2024 as well as upon the judgment passed in the case of Praveen Kumar Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors. (SBCWP No. 4589/2024) and submits that a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, while considering the similar issue, has dismissed writ petitions and thus, the respondents have not violated the provisions as laid down in Rule 9 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957.

6. Heard.

7. Upon perusal of the transfer order dated 10.07.2026 (Annex.4), it is observed that the petitioner has been transferred from RP-I Ravatsar, District Hanumangarh to Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar. However, the impugned order does not specify the Patwar Mandal at which the petitioner is required to report and join duties, and merely mentions "Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar", thereby rendering the transfer order incomplete and lacking in specificity.

8. This Court finds that the case in hand is squarely covered by the judgment passed in the case of Rajpal Singh (supra) and the relevant part of the judgment is reproduced hereunder:-

“11. Having made above legal submission, learned counsel for the petitioner took the Court through the basic fact, rather the impugned order passed by the Board of Revenue and argued that so far as petitioner is concerned, a simple indication has been made that he is transferred from Patwar Mandal Akadali, Tehsil Pachpadra, District Barmer to District Hanumangarh. With an expression of astonishment he argued that the competent authority who subjected the petitioner to transfer, was not even aware as to whether any post is lying vacant or has become vacant or any exigency has arisen in a particular Patwar Circle, so that the petitioner is/was required, yet he has transferred the Patwari in the District of Hanumangarh. 27. In considered opinion of this Court, the fact that the petitioner has been shunted from Patwar Mandal Akadali, Tehsil Pachpadra, District Barmer to District Hanumangarh, without indicating Patwar Circle or even Tehsil is enough to show lack of application of mind. It cannot be inferred that the competent authority was aware of the present vacant position in District Hanumangarh and that too the requirement of petitioner’s efficiency in such Patwar Circle, for which his transfer was warranted.

28. If the competent authority has not decided or was not aware, where the concerned Patwari is to be transferred, it cannot be presumed that the competent authority has applied its mind towards the vacant position, falling vacant on account of exigencies mentioned in clause (ii) of Rule 9 of the Rules of 1957. Nor can he be presumed to have ascertained that interest of efficiency of work required that petitioner should be transferred to a far flung place at Hanumangarh.

29. Adverting to Division Bench judgment in the case of Gopalram (supra), suffice it to observe that the facts of the said case were entirely different. The basic ground for which the petitioner had challenged his transfer was that it is the State Government alone, which can transfer a Patwari and the District Collector cannot by himself transfer a Patwari unless directed by the State Government so to do. That apart the facts as noticed in the judgment and finding recorded therein, particularly in para No.12 shows that the concerned petitioner’s transfer was on account of administrative exigency, interalia, to fill up the vacant post. Contra-distinction to the decided judgment, the facts and questions involved in the present case are entirely different. In the present case neither the order impugned nor does material placed on record is sufficient to satisfy that petitioner’s transfer was effectuated in a bid to fill up vacant post.

30. It will not be out of place to reproduce para No.12 and 13 of the Division Bench judgment dated 28.01.2020 in the case of Gopalram (supra), relied upon by learned Government Counsel:-

“12. Coming to the contention of the appellant that the transfer order issued by the District Collector is violative of provisions of Rule 9 (ii) and Rule 412, a conjoint reading of Rule 9 and Rule 412 indicates that a Patwari should not be ordinarily transferred, but then, he can always be transferred when considered necessary in the interest of efficiency of work or to fill up vacancy created by long leave, resignation, dismissal, suspension or transfer of the Patwari. Suffice it to say that besides for administrative exigency, a Patwari can be transferred even to fill up the vacant post created on account of various contingencies enumerated. Thus, on account of administrative exigency, inter-alia to fill up the vacant posts, if number of employees holding the post of Patwaris are transferred within the District, in no manner, it can be said that the order impugned passed by the District Collector without recording the satisfaction regarding necessity in the interest of efficiency of work, is violative of provisions of Rule 9 (ii) and Rule 412 of the Rules of 1957. As a matter of fact, the order impugned by itself reflects that the transfers have been effected for administrative exigency to fill up the vacant posts.

13. Admittedly, the transfer of a Patwari from one place to another within the Sub-Division, District, Division or State is regulated by Rule 9 of the Rules of 1957 which nowhere restricts the transfer of a Patwari prior to completion of a particular period of posting at a particular place. The circular/instructions issued by the State Government providing for transfer of Patwari after completion of the tenure of two years, are in the nature of guidelines not enforceable and cannot be construed in the manner suggested so as to put absolute restriction on the power to be exercised by the authorities enumerated under Rule 9 to transfer a Patwari for administrative exigency or other contingencies specified. In other words, notwithstanding the instructions issued by the State Government as aforesaid, the authority empowered can transfer a Patwari at any time for administrative exigency in accordance with Rule 9 of the Rules. It is a different matter that even otherwise in absence of administrative exigency, an employee holding the transferable post cannot be frequently transferred by his employer at his whims and fancy, but on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, in no manner, it can be inferred that the appellant has been transferred without there being any administrative exigency and it is not even the case of the appellant that he has been subjected to frequent transfer.”

31. As an upshot of discussion foregoing, this Court has no hesitation in holding that the petitioner has been subjected to transfer, contrary to the mandate of Rule 9(ii) of 1957. Impugned order thus, deserves to be quashed.

32. The same is hereby ~~done~~. The impugned transfer order dated 31.12.2020 qua the petitioner, is, hereby, quashed.
33. The writ petition stands allowed as above.
34. Stay petition also stands disposed of accordingly.”

9. This Court finds that the Coordinate Bench of this Court, in Rajpal Singh v. State of Rajasthan (S.B. Civil Writ Petition No. 544/2021, decided on 18.03.2021), held that a transfer order which does not specify the Patwar Mandal to which a Patwari is transferred reflects non-application of mind on the part of the competent authority, as it cannot be presumed that the authority had duly considered the existence of a vacancy or the administrative exigency contemplated under Rule 9(ii) of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957. In the present case, the impugned transfer order merely mentions the petitioner's transfer to Tehsil Dag, District Jhalawar, without specifying the Patwar Mandal where he is required to discharge his duties. The absence of such specification does not indicate that the competent authority had considered the availability of a vacant post or the administrative necessity warranting the petitioner's transfer. Furthermore, from the perusal of the case of Praveen Kumar (supra), relied upon by the counsel for the respondents, it is seen that the issue pertained to the transfer of the petitioner from Patwar Mandal, Ravwala, Tehsil Bajju, District Bikaner to Patwar Mandal Pabusar, Tehsil Shergarh, District Jodhpur, and the specific issue before the Court was that no satisfaction of the officer/competent authority has been recorded before passing the transfer order in terms of Rule 9(i) of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957. It is also seen that in the case of Vinod Kumar (supra), the law laid down in the case of Rajpal Singh (supra), has not been considered and it appears that the same has not been brought to the notice of the Court. In the present case, the issue raised by the petitioner is that while transferring the petitioner, the respondents have not mentioned Patwar Mandal at the new place of posting. Thus, apparently, the case relied upon by the respondents i.e. Vinod Kumar (supra) and Praveen Kumar (supra), are distinguishable from the present case.

10. In view of the law laid down in Rajpal Singh (supra), and considering that the impugned transfer order does not specify the Patwar Mandal to which the petitioner has been transferred, the present writ petition deserves to be allowed.

11. Consequently, the impugned transfer order dated 10.07.2026 (Annex.4) is quashed and set aside insofar as it relates to the petitioner.

12. All pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.

(DR. NUPUR BHATI),J