The controversy raised in this writ petition is regarding the land earmarked for public park for which even tenders were invited for the purpose of development but now it has been allotted to private persons for residential purposes.

The argument is that the land earmarked for park cannot be allotted for any other purpose much less for residential purposes.

The private respondents no. 4 to 11 are represented by Mr. C.S. Kotwani learned counsel, who has filed reply to the writ petition. The respondent no. 3 is represented by Mr. Jayant Joshi learned counsel, who may file reply to the writ petition within a month.

Respondents no. 1 and 2 are State authorities and therefore, learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to serve copy of the petition in the office of learned Advocate General, who will ensure that the matter is allotted to some State counsel for filing counter affidavit.
