For Petitioner(s) : Mr. R.C. Joshi
For Respondent(s) :

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN MONGA

Order

11/11/2024

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that non-application of mind coupled with sheer arbitrariness is writ large from the mere sequence of events, which would reflect that petitioner has been transferred as many as 4 times in a short span of two years. Each time, the petitioner obeyed the transfer orders believing them to be in the interest of the administrative exigency.
2. Every time, the petitioner shifted his place along with his family and made his arrangements of stay etc., short-while thereafter, he was again dislodged in the middle of the academic session making his three minor children also suffer the consequences thereof.

3. He submits that petitioner was last time transferred on 11.10.2024. He had just about settled after renting a house at Dhanba, and yet again he has been transferred vide impugned order dated 28.10.2024, ostensibly on the ground of administrative exigency. In fact, no such exigency exists as the post on which the petitioner has been directed to assume charge, had been lying vacant for lack of sufficient work, he contends further.

4. Issue notice.

5. Liberty is granted to serve the respondents through nominated counsel.

6. Meanwhile, effect and operation of the impugned order dated 28.10.2024 (Annex.2) shall remain stayed qua the petitioner.
