Order

10/01/2023

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that in the identical writ petitions, this Court has passed the interim order in the following terms:-

“The matter comes up on an application (1/2022) filed by the petitioner seeking a direction for the respondents to enroll its students pursuing studies in B.Sc. Nursing Part-I.

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that this Court, vide its order dated 24.02.2022, directed the respondent-University to permit the petitioner to participate in the counseling process for admission in B.Sc. Nursing Part-I and in pursuance whereof, admissions were granted to the students. He submits that now, the respondent-University is not issuing enrollment number to its students.

Learned counsel for the respondent-University prays for an adjournment.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that tomorrow is the last date for issuance of enrollment number to the students of B.Sc. Nursing Part-I.

In view thereof, the prayer of adjournment is rejected.

Heard learned counsels.

In view of the fact that the petitioner-Institution has been permitted by this Court to participate in counseling process for admission in B.Sc. Nursing Part-I, it is beyond comprehension as to how the respondent-University can deny issuance of enrollment number to the students so admitted.

Therefore, the application is allowed. The respondent-University is directed to issue enrollment number to the students of the petitioner-Institution immediately."

The students of the petitioner-institute shall be enrolled by respondent-university. It is made clear that the grant of enrollment shall not create any right in favour of the petitioner and the same shall be subject to the grant of NOC and final outcome of the writ petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to supply a copy of writ petitions to the respective counsel of the respondent-department.

List the matters after three weeks along with S.B. Civil Writ Petition Nos.11421/2022 & 12213/2022 & 17894/2022.
