Order

05/05/2026

Learned counsel for the parties jointly submitted that the controversy involved in the present case stands squarely covered by the judgments of the Division Bench of this Court in "State of Rajasthan & Ors. vs. Dr. Dinesh Kumar Soni" and "State of Rajasthan & Ors. vs. Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal & Ors.", wherein it has been held that where appointments are made against sanctioned posts after following due selection procedure, even if termed as temporary or adhoc, the services so rendered are liable to be counted for continuity along with all consequential benefits.

In light of the aforesaid joint submission made at bar by the learned counsels for the parties and keeping in view the judgment of Division Bench in the cases of "Dr. Dinesh Kumar Soni" (supra) and "Dr. Paritosh Ujjwal" (supra), the present writ petition is allowed.

The respondents are directed to treat the services rendered by the petitioners from the date of their initial appointments as continuous for all purposes, to grant protection of pay, and to extend all consequential benefits including seniority, increments and proper fixation of pay, in accordance with law.

The stay petition and all pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
