HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MADAN GOPAL VYAS
Order

23/01/2025

1. At the threshold, the learned AAG Mr. N.S. Rajpurohit, alongwith assisting counsel Ms. Anita Rajpurohit submits that the State Government had granted NOC to the petitioner-Institution for admitting 100 students. However, the Indian Nursing Council at the relevant time did not approve the admission of 100 students but allowed the permission for reduced seats. Learned Additional Advocate General further submits that the representation of the petitioner for continuance of GNM course for Academic Session 2024-25 for admitting 100 students is under consideration. The Additional Advocate General further submits that his instructions are that 100 students for Academic Session 2024-25 for GNM course may be permitted by this Court provisionally subject to the final outcome of the representation. On such categorical statement by the Additional Advocate General Mr. N.S. Rajpurohit and looking into the overall factual matter and the narration of the events by the Mr. Rajpurohit which includes previous valid NOCs and fresh consideration underway, this Court grants permission to the petitioner to admit 100 students in the GNM course as per the instructions of the Additional Advocate General of the State Government.

2. Accordingly, the petitioner-Institution shall be permitted to participate in the ongoing counseling for Academic Session 2024-25 for admitting 100 students in GNM course provisionally, subject to the final outcome of the representation which is pending consideration before the Court.

3. It is made clear that the admission of these students would be strictly made as per the instructions of the learned AAG and the outcome of the decision of the State shall govern the position of the admission of students.

4. Any student admitted in pursuance of the order shall not be permitted to claim any equity on the basis of this order.

5. List the matter after four weeks.
