1. A serious conflict and dichotomy is noticed by this Court as to where accused was found present when the Seizing Officer Ladu Lal reached and proceeded to undertake further proceedings. As per the Parcha Kayami Report and seizure memo prepared by Ladu Lal, Sub-Inspector, the accused was lying on a cot on an abandoned government land near to his own agricultural land. However, when examined in the trial, he took a U-turn and replied in cross-examination that when he alongwith police team reached to the spot, the accused was sitting in his own agricultural land, not on the government land. Why this dichotomy. Either he prepared a false seizure memo or he gave false statement before the trial Court, out of the two, only one can be correct; and this can be verified by the witness alone. Learned Public Prosecutor shall summon Seizure Officer - Ladu Lal who shall furnish an affidavit to come out of the conflict mentioned above.

2. List the matter on 03.02.2026.
