HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDESH BANSAL

Order

10/12/2025

1. Instant bail application has been filed by petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS in connection with FIR No. 252/2025 registered at Police Station- Deogarh, District- Rajsamand for offence under Section 65(1) of BNS, 2023 and Sections 3 and 4 of POCSO Act.
2. As per office report, information to the victim/complainant about filing of this bail application has been given but no one has put in appearance.
3. Counsel for the petitioner submits that victim is a major girl and in her statement recorded under Section 183 of BNSS so also in the statements recorded during course of trial, she has not levelled any allegation of committing sexual assault by petitioner with her against her wish.

4. Learned counsel further submits that FIR was lodged by victim's mother and statements of victim's mother have also been recorded during course of trial. In her statements, she admits that there is no proof of date of birth of victim. Learned counsel submits that petitioner is in custody since 22.08.2025 (more than three months) and petitioner is a young boy; since the statement of victim and her mother have been recorded, there cannot be any apprehension against petitioner to induce/tamper with the prosecution witnesses; conclusion of trial may take considerable time, hence, in such circumstance petitioner be granted the benefit of bail.

5. Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

6. Heard counsel for petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the fact that in statements of victim recorded under Section 183 BNSS, 2023 as also in her court statements, recorded during course of trial, she has not levelled any allegation of aggravated sexual assault against petitioner; there is no concrete evidence of victim's mother about her age of minorship; since the statement of victim and her mother have been recorded, there is no possibility to induce/tamper with the prosecution witnesses by petitioner; petitioner is young boy and long incarceration may ruin his future; conclusion of trial may take considerable time, however, without commenting on merits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to release the petitioner on bail.

8. Accordingly, this bail application is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-petitioner-Sajjan Singh S/o Shri Narayan Singh shall be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial Judge for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing as and when called upon to do so.
