Order

08/05/2026

This anticipatory bail application has been filed by the petitioner apprehending her arrest in connection with FIR No.06/2024, registered at Police Station Bagra, District Jalore for the offences under Sections 419, 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter pertains to the creation of the forged power of attorney and the present petitioner is a bonafide purchaser of the said property. It is also stated that petitioner has already joined the investigation and the investigation is complete from her in pursuance to the order of this Court dated 19.11.2025.

Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail but, however does not dispute the fact that the petitioner is a purchaser of the property in question.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the impugned order. It is seen that the allegations are regarding creation of forged power of attorney. The petitioner is a bonafide purchaser of the registered sale-deed and no other allegations are levelled against her. Petitioner had already joined the investigation and further petitioner is a lady.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and upon a consideration of the arguments advanced at the bar, this Court is of the opinion that it is a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner under Section 482 BNSS.

Accordingly, the bail application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest of petitioner- Sopu Devi W/o Peetha Ram in connection with FIR No.06/2024 for the offences under Sections 419, 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC, the petitioner shall be released on bail; provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- each along with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the concerned Investigating Officer/S.H.O. on the following conditions :-
