Judgment / Order

24/02/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.05/2024 registered at Police Station Mandal, District Bhilwara for offence under Sections 8/29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that in the present case, the allegation against the present petitioner is for supplying of 75 Kgs 770 grams of Poppy straw powder, which is above the commercial quantity, but co-accused Vinod from whose conscious possession the said contraband has been recovered was granted benefit of bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court on 28.04.2025. He argued that the case of the present petitioner is on better footing than that of co-accused who has been granted bail. Though, two cases including one of similar nature have been reported against the petitioner, but in both these cases, he has been bailed out. The petitioner is behind the bars since 03.11.2025, charge-sheet has been filed and the trial of the case will take considerable time, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody, therefore, on the ground of parity, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner, especially on the ground of parity, but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Rajmal @ Raju S/o Bakshiram @ Baksu, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
