Order

21/11/2025

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that despite three rounds of counseling all the seats of the petitioner-college could not be filled and therefore, the petitioner may be allowed to fill the vacant seats as per Clause 9 of Regulation 7 of Veterinary Council of India-Minimum Standards of Veterinary Education-Degree Course (B.V.Sc.& A.H.) Regulations, 2008 (hereinafter referred to as 'Regulations of 2008').

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that considering the identical controversy, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, while deciding S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.15131/2018 alongwith connected matter on 25.09.2019, permitted the petitioner-college therein to fill up the vacant seats in terms of Clause 9 of Regulation 7 of the Regulations of 2008.

3. In view of the submissions made above, issue notice of the writ petition to the respondents as well as of the stay application.

4. Since Mr. SS Ladhrecha, AAG and Mr. Ajay Kumar Vyas, learned counsel are representing the respondent Nos.1 and 2, therefore, notices need not be issued to them.

5. Let notices be issued to the respondent Nos.3 and 4 only, returnable within four weeks.

6. Learned counsel for the respondent-State as well as the university submit that interim order as prayed by the learned counsel for the petitioner may be granted, however, the students, which the petitioner-institute would be admitting based on the present interim order, should satisfy the eligibility to be finally decided by the State/University.

7. Considering the submissions made above, the petitioner-institute is provisionally permitted to fill up the vacant seats after the counselling process is over, however, the students admitted by the petitioner-institute will abide by the eligibility to be finally decided by the State/University.
