Judgment / Order

24/02/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.31/2025 registered at Police Station Balesar, District Jodhpur for offence under Sections 8/15 and 29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that no contraband has been recovered from the conscious possession of the petitioner. The only allegation against him is of supplying contraband to the co-accused Dolaram and he has been implicated in the present case on the basis of disclosure statement of co-accused Jitendra. Learned counsel argued that there is no connecting material to implicate the present petitioner in the offence. Therefore, rigour of Section 37 will not be applicable in the present case. Though, four cases reported against the petitioner, but in all these cases, he has been bailed out. The petitioner is behind the bars since 09.08.2025, charge-sheet has been filed and the trial of the case will take considerable time, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner, but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Lekharam Alias Lekhram Alias PP S/o Daulatram, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
