Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the relationship between her and her husband Virendra Singh is not cordial and matrimonial disputes are going on. There is a divorce petition pending and another FIR is pending as well as a case under domestic violence is also pending. It is further stated that she is also registered a FIR against her husband.

In view thereof, the present FIR is registered due to malafide intention levelling false allegations and even if the allegations are taken on the face of it, it does not constitute an offence.

Looking to the facts and circumstances of the case, this court deem it appropriate to issue notice to respondent No. 2.
