The petitioner, by way of present criminal misc. petition, challenges the proceedings initiated on the basis of the FIR registered by the complainant under Sections 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC wherein allegations have been levelled by the complainant that the petitioner had forced the complainant to appear in the Court and submit a compromise. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that compromise was made as a rule of the court and therefore, if any proceedings, which have been taken before the Court, it is the Court alone, which can take cognizance and initiate further proceedings and direct lodging of the complaint in terms of Section 195 Cr.P.C.

Issue notice on petition as well as stay application, returnable within four weeks.

In the meanwhile, further proceedings on the basis of FIR No.434/2019 shall remain stayed.
