Order

14/07/2026

1. The instant restoration application has been submitted for restoration of S.B. Criminal Misc. Petition No.10444/2022.
2. Counsel for the applicant submits that on the last occasion, when the aforesaid petition was listed before the Court, counsel for the petitioner could not appear on the fateful day due to circumstances beyond his control and as such, the defects as marked by the Registry could not be cured. He is now willing to cure the defects marked by the Registry. Counsel submits that since important questions of law and facts are involved in the matter which are required to be decided on their merits, the aforesaid petition be restored to its original number.
3. Heard the submissions.
4. Application stands allowed for the reasons stated therein, and the S.B. Criminal Misc. Petition is restored to its original number.
5. Office is directed to proceed.
