In the backdrop of the order dated 19.01.2024, it is submitted that though deemed service has been effected through paper publication, the allegations are grave, pertaining to the retaining and/or siphoning out of funds to the tune of Rs. 1,02,36,24,311/- by the erstwhile Directors.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the respondents that the Directors, who were actually involved in the transactions, are not marking appearance before this Court.

Considering the facts, in the interest of justice and as a last opportunity, the office of Official Liquidator is directed to make an attempt for ensuring the presence of the said Directors, with the aid and assistance of the Income Tax Department, by taking the Permanent Account Numbers (PAN) of the said Directors, who are not marking appearance before this Court.

List the matter on 22.03.2024.

In the meantime, requisites be carried out by the office of Official Liquidator.

If none appears for the Directors on the next date, then looking to the nature of allegations, bailable warrants shall be issued for ensuring their presence.
