The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that both the petitioners are license holders of fair price shops. He further submits that the petitioner No.1 is having 365 ration cards and petitioner No.2 is holding 592 ration cards. He also submits that it is the policy of the State Government that no new fair price shop license can be issued until and unless the number of ration cards attached with the fair price shop exceeds 500, however, the respondents have issued an advertisement inviting applications for issuance of an additional license for fair price shop for Gram Panchayat Moriya, Tehsil Chomu, District Jaipur. Such action of the respondents is illegal and arbitrary.

Considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Issue notice of the writ petition as well as of the stay application to the respondents. Rule is made returnable within four weeks.

The respondents may proceed with the selection process but, shall not finalize the selection for the fair price shop to establish at Gram Panchayat Moriya, Tehsil Chomu, District Jaipur.
