1. Petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S., arising out of F.I.R. No. 0269/2025, registered with the Police Station Mandhan, Distt. Kotputli-Behror for offence under Sections 189(2), 190, 115(2), 126(2), 307 and 111(2)(b) of BNS, 2023.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the accused-petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submits that the injured-complainant has sustained only one injury, and it is not evident from his statements that the said injury was caused by the petitioner. He further submits that the petitioner is in custody since 03.11.2025 and trial of the case will take long time to conclude, therefore, he may be enlarged on bail.
3. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.
4. Considered the submissions made by counsel for the petitioners as well as learned Public Prosecutor.

5. In view of the contents of the FIR, it appears that 5-7 persons attacked the complainant. As per the medical reports, the complainant, Sonu, sustained only one injury. Neither in the FIR nor in the statements recorded by the police, is it clear that the said injury was inflicted by the accused-petitioner.

6. In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, and considering that the injury sustained by the complainant has not been specifically attributed to the accused-petitioner and Police after completion of the investigation has submitted the charge sheet in the matter, this Court without expressing any opinion on the merits and demerits of the case, deems just and proper to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

7. This bail application is, accordingly, allowed and it is directed that accused-petitioner shall be released on bail provided each of them furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lac only) together with two sureties in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) each to the satisfaction of the trial Court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court and any Court to which the matter be transferred, on all subsequent dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.
