Order

07/12/2022

In compliance of the directions passed by this Court earlier, observations of the Monitoring Committee have been submitted.

As a large number of interim applications are pending, before considering the matter on the basis of various reports submitted before this Court, it is necessary to decide those interim applications.

Reply to the pending interim applications, if not filed, may be filed within two weeks'. No further time would be granted to file reply to the pending interim applications to any of the opposite parties.

The Registry shall prepare a separate paper book of all the pending interim applications along with their replies, if any filed, for convenient disposal of the applications on the next date of hearing.

List these matters in the 3rd week of January, 2023 for consideration of all the pending interim applications.
