Order

25/02/2026

After arguing the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to withdraw this writ petition so as to avail appropriate remedy available to him under law. He also submits that by the time the petitioner avails other appropriate remedy, no coercive action may be taken against him.

In view of the limited prayer made by counsel for the petitioner, the present writ petition is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioner to avail appropriate remedy available to him under law.

It is also made clear that the respondents shall not take any coercive action against the petitioner for a period of ten days from today.
