Versus

Rajkumar Jain Son Of Shri Kanhaiya Lal Jain

-----Respondent

For Petitioner(s) : Mr. R.N. Mathur, Sr. Advocate, assisted by Mr. Salman Agha

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GANESH RAM MEENA

Order

10/03/2026

Learned Sr. Advocate, Mr. R.N. Mathur submits that the judgment dated 07.06.2010 was passed by the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Forum, Kota in complaint No. 156/2006, whereby certain directions were issued for transfer of 120 shares of Rs.10/- each and the due dividend amount alongwith interest at the rate of 9% p.a.

Learned Sr. Advocate further submits that as an out of Court settlement regarding the order dated 07.06.2010, the petitioner-company handed over a demand draft of Rs.12,000/- to the complainant-respondent alongwith letter dated 07.05.2011, which was received by the complainant-respondent on 10.05.2011. Learned counsel further submits that the amount of the demand draft given to the complainant-respondent has already been transferred to him and in view of that payment, the complainant-respondent did not pursue any remedy alleging non-compliance of the order passed by the District Forum. Learned counsel further submits that the complainant-respondent, after an inordinate delay of 8 years, suddenly woke up and filed a complaint alleging non-compliance of the judgment dated 07.06.2010.

Learned Sr. Advocate submits that the complainant-respondent had alleged in his complaint that the petitioner-company has not paid the due dividend amount alongwith interest. There is no allegation of non-compliance of the order regarding transfer of the share amount. Learned Sr. Advocate further submits that making such a complaint after a lapse of 8 years is a severe misuse of process of law and the Court below, without considering the totality of the fact, passed the order dated 25.09.2025 for attaching the bank account No. 11083979042 of the petitioner-company.

Issue notice/s to the respondent/s, returnable within four weeks.

Notice of stay application be also issued.

Till the next date of hearing, the effect and operation of order dated 25.09.2025 shall remain stayed and no coercive action shall be taken against the petitioner-company.
